Hawaii Immunization Registry

The place for your
immunization record.

Are you and your family a part of it?

A message from your Hawaii State Department of Health

The Hawaii Immunization Registry is a free service of the Hawaii State Department of Health for people living in Hawaii. It is a secure computer system that stores and tracks patient immunization records and makes them available to doctors, nurses, and other healthcare workers.

Immunizations,
also known as vaccinations
or shots, protect people
from diseases like measles, influenza, hepatitis B and chickenpox.

How does the immunization registry work?

Doctors and nurses can store information in the registry. The information is used to make sure your immunization records are up to date. This information will include at minimum:

- Your name
- Date of birth
- Gender
- Mailing address
- Immunization record

How does the immunization registry help you and your family?

The registry helps make sure you:

- Don't miss any immunizations or get too many
- Have all of the immunizations needed to:
  - Start day care, school, or college
  - Sign-up for camp or sports programs
  - Travel to other countries
  - Prepare for hospital visits or long-term care

How does the immunization registry help doctors and nurses?

The registry will help your doctor or nurse:

- Keep track of immunizations given by your other doctors and nurses.
- Check which immunizations you need at each visit.
- Print out an immunization record for you.
